This maybe done now that the amount has been deposited at the credit of the institution

R.L. 12.4.13

On a personal enquiry in the comptr's office, it is learnt that the amt can be kept in Rev: deposit by requesting the comptroller to make the necessary transfer.

It is also learnt from the comptr's office that in the case of Rev: deposits, the object of such a deposit should be made known, that the amts should not be allowed to stand for an indefinite period as they lapse at the end of 3 years, & that amts should be ordered to be kept in Rev: deposit when both the head to which they ought to be credited & the amt are not definitely known. Items under Rev: deposits are to be minimised as far as possible.

The Sri Chamarajendra Sanskrit College is a Mysore institution as it enjoys grants from Mysore funds; & the proposed Students Home is in connection with it. So the object for which the grant is to be utilised is definite, and the head to which it is now credited is stated to be suitable.
